

Good news for Friends of the Danbury Concert Association

The Veronica Hagman Concert Hall at Western Connecticut State University's Visual and Performing Arts Center is available for our use again, and we've invited longtime DCA favorites to kick off our "musical comeback" in the form of a three-concert Spring Series.

Join us for the return of beautiful live music!

Llewellyn Sanchez-Werner, pianist
Sunday, March 20, 2022, at 3 p.m.

His exceptional pianism and inspiring interpretation awed us in 2016 and 2018 – we couldn't think of a better musical ambassador to inaugurate this special series.

Borealis Wind Quintet
Sunday, April 10, 2022, at 3 p.m.

Our favorite wind ensemble will present the very program they had planned for their 2020 appearance, including Bach's Concerto No. 2; works by Ungar, Lefebvre, and Turrin; and Briccialdi's "Potpourri Fantastico."

A Far Cry with mezzo-soprano Krista River
Sunday, May 15, 2022, at 3 p.m.

"Boston's best classical ensemble" will return to Danbury with a beautiful program about love, loss, and the divine, featuring mezzo-soprano Krista River in Respighi's moving "Il Tramonto."

We'll follow recommended protocols to keep audiences and artists safe

- There will be open seating throughout the hall.
- All present will need to comply with university and state public health protocols that may be in effect at the time, such as mask-wearing and social distancing. This could mean that attendance may be limited.

Here's what to expect from us later this fall

- If you're on our mailing list as a past subscriber, you should receive a brochure (with an order form) which will be sent by regular mail in December.*
- You can use the brochure order form to purchase Spring Series subscriptions at $55 per adult for all three performances. (Admission for those 18 and under will continue to be free, through a grant from the Danbury Cultural Commission.)
- If you asked last year to have the unused portion of your 2019/2020 subscription applied to a future season, please contact our office at 203.748.2177 at your earliest convenience to confirm your Spring Series order.
- All subscription requests will be processed depending on availability, up to the attendance limit that may be imposed by WCSU. (If it is possible to offer admission to individual concerts, single tickets will be made available on wcsuwpac.eventbrite.com approximately one month prior to performance dates.)

If you have any questions, please phone our office or leave a message at 203.748.2177.

* To notify us of a change in your mailing or email address, call 203.748.2177 or send an email to events@danburyconcert.org, including your name, previous mailing or email address, and your new contact information.

We look forward to seeing you in the Spring! (And yes, we do intend to resume our usual four-concert series schedule, with two concerts in Fall 2022 and two more in Spring 2023.)

With kind regards,

Kathryn Taylor Kloss, President and the board of the Danbury Concert Association

Artists and dates subject to change. Audience capacity may be reduced as a COVID safety precaution, in compliance with public health conditions and venue protocols.